THE REV. Wm. BARCLAY'S

Patent Antibilious Pills.

HAVING, from the experience of many years, every reason to conclude that the Bile in a vitiated state is the fruitful parent of the various complicated bodily miseries to which human nature is heir (particularly the Gout, Rheumatism, Nervous affections, &c. &c.)—that we bring it into the world with us—that the first pang the infant suffers, proceeds from it—and that it haunts us more or less during our continuance in it—has often thought it would be a matter of the first consequence to those who suffer under its baneful effects, could any composition or combination of Medicine be so contrived, that would prove safe, as well as efficacious, in assisting Nature in the expulsion of that dangerous intestine enemy.

This, he boldly asserts, in the composition of THE PATENT ANTIBILIOUS PILLS, he has fully attained without the assistance, of any Mercurial or Aloetic Preparation whatsoever, (the fruit of much observation, much time, and much experiment); and that the active part of those Pills is so guarded and corrected as to make them as mild and gentle in their operation, as they are sure and effectual in expelling the vitiated, fiery, acrimonious Bile; and if, an irresistible weight of facts, and an accumulation of select and honourable personal evidence, be sufficient testimony of their merits, Dr. Barclay has permission to publish the annexed Names and Cases.

The bad effects of over indulgence in the pleasures of the table or wine; if, upon such occasions, two or three Pills be taken when going to bed, and the same quantity repeated the next morning. The Pills have likewise been of very essential service to many of the FEMALE SEX, when struggling under the inconveniences of occasional obstructions; and, in the decline of life.

The Rev. WILLIAM BARCLAY strongly recommends the Pills as a FAMILY MEDICINE, being perfectly innocent in their composition, and particularly useful in removing all complaints arising from a Sedentary habit of life and Disordered Stomach, from whence proceed those continual Bilious, Nervous, and Sick Head-achs, Flatulencies, Indigestion, Heartburns, Jaundice, Yellow and Putrid Fevers, &c.

The Pills have been used with universal success, in cases of the Bile or Gout, by the following distinguished persons, viz.

His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.	E. Clarke, Esq. Claypond House Brentford.
The Lord Bishop of Bath and Wells.	N. Calvert, Esq. M. P. for Hertford.
The Right Hon. Viscount Dillon.	E. Boehm, Esq. New-street, Spring-gardens.
Sir John Honeywood, Bart. M. P. for Honiton.	Thomas Hammersley, Esq. Pall Mall.
Sir S. Lushington, Bart. M. P. for Penryn.	W. B. Martin, Esq. Portland Place.
Sir Wm. Green, Bart. Chandos Street.	Wm. Stock, Esq. Chemist to the King.
Thomas Anson, Esq. M. P. for Litchfield.	G. W. Dickes, Esq. Private Secretary to the late Archbishop of Canterbury.
Jas. Amyatt, Esq. M. P. for Southampton.	Rev. Mr. Dimmock, Librarian, to the late Archbishop.
Cecil Forrester, Esq. M. P. for Wenlock.
Geo. Smith and Jas. Simmonds, Esqrs. Principal Officers of His Majesty's Dock Yard, Portsmouth, &c. &c. &c.

From the Hon. Archdeacon Caulfield to Dr. Barclay's Agent

GLENARM, JULY 8, 1805.

I HAVE received your fresh supply in two double boxes of this most excellent medicine, denominated Barclay's Antibilious Pill, for which the Rev. Wm.

Barclay has a Patent. I informed you I had found them very efficacious, and you requested permission to add my name to the most respectable signatures in its favour. I should imagine the Archbishop of Canterbury's name of itself sufficient, and acknowledge I tried the Pills entirely on my firm belief that it was in itself an host. It is not possible so dignified a personage would suffer his name to be made use of but for the good of the Public, or that it could be annexed to any thing but truth. I have experienced the soundness of the foundation on which I built, for I was subject to tormenting flatulencies, proceeding from bile, and have to thank Mr. Barclay for the cure. You may, therefore, make use of my name where and when you please. I am, Sir, your's &c. J. CAULFIELD, Archdeacon of Kilmore.

From Lord Anson, St. James's Square.

Sir,—I have for some time taken your (Barclay's) patent Antibilious Pills, as well as your Specific for the Gout, and I feel happy in informing you, I have always received the greatest benefit and relief from them; and shall, as I have always done since I have experienced their efficacy, feel the greatest pleasure in recommending them.

To the Rev. Dr. BARCLAY.—Feb. 17.

I am, Your's, &c. ANSON.

From Alderman Hibbert.

Sir,—Having so essentially benefitted by your Medicines, I should accuse myself were I to inter any assertions to your advantage, to pass unnoticed. I have been applied to by several friends at Bath, to send them some of your Pills, and am convinced you would find the advantage, could you establish the sale of them at that place.

I am happy to say my health is now very good, and am always ready to acknowledge the merits of your Medicine.

I am, Sir, your obedient humble servant,

Brook Street, Dec. 9, 1805.

S. HIBBERT.

From Thomas Bernerd, Esq.

Sir,

Upper Crescent, Bath, July 26, 1805.

ON receipt of this I request you will send me six double boxes of your Barclay's Antibilious Pills, and twelve bottles of Specific. Inclosed is a draft for 50l. pay yourself for the Medicine, and apply the remainder to the publication of the following case:—For the last fourteen years I have been afflicted with the gout, and for the last four years this is the first letter I have been able to write, which I think ought to be addressed to you, acknowledging my perfect cure by using your Antibilious Pills and Specific.

I am, Sir, your most obliged humble servant,

The Rev. Wm. Barclay, London.

THOS. BERNERD.

Lambeth-house, March 8, 1796.

Dear Sir,—It was my intention to have called upon you this morning, to express my obligations to you for your invaluable Medicine, from which I have already experienced inconceivable benefit. I now taste and enjoy my food in a manner that has been unknown to me for many months past; and my spirits and general health are most astonishingly amended. The copperas taste in my mouth is wholly removed, and the acrimonious bilious risings in my throat have totally left me, and I have little or no return of the bilious symptoms, but upon the least appearance of them, three or four of the Pills quickly remove them.

These have also been found of equal benefit to several of my friends and acquaintance, who have tried them, that I have an order to purchase four boxes of them, which I will request you to send by the bearer. I shall certainly take the first opportunity of waiting upon you, to assure you, in person, how sincerely I am,

Respectfully, Sir, your obliged humble servant, G. W. DICKES.

Sold Wholesale and Retail at Mr. Cutler's, 4, Cheapside, corner of Paternoster-row; and Retail by most Country Booksellers and Medicine Venders. The Pills in Boxes at 10s. and 5s. 6d. each, and the Specific in Bottles at 11s. each, with ample directions. To prevent Counterfeits, "W. BARCLAY" is engraved on a Black Stamp, which Stamp is affixed to each Box.

BEAUTY, HEALTH, AND
A GOOD SET of TEETH,

MAY BE PRESERVED TO OLD AGE,

BY THE USE OF

BUTLER'S
Restorative Tooth Powder,
A SPECIFIC FOR THE TOOTH-ACH,

ITS CAUSE, SCURVY IN THE GUMS,

And a certain Preventive of this Painful and most disagreeable Malady.

The late LORD CHESTERFIELD, whose transcendent abilities, as a Statesman, are entirely eclipsed by those he possessed as a Mannerist, declared, with great discernment, "That a good Set of Teeth, in either Sex, must considerably add to the Prepossession formed in the Mind, on a first appearance;" and the Remark was just, for nothing recommends a Person more than a good Set of Teeth.

Caution against the Use of Mineral Tooth Powders.

The great Mannerist above quoted has shewn the advantages of a good Set of Teeth, as to Prepossession in favor of a person on a first appearance; but how much more lasting is the Pleasure of enjoying that Health, which is to be boasted by those who are endowed with this most useful and captivating Ornament!

There is no part of the above curative Art, perhaps, which has been more misunderstood, than a remedy for decayed or decaying Teeth, vulgarly called bad Teeth—invariably accompanied by offensive breath. Until within a very few years, the only Applications exhibited to the choice of persons afflicted with Disorders in the Gums, consisted of hot astringent and corrosive admixtures, than which nothing can be more destructive to the Enamel. These Medicines had one recommendation, which procured them the approbation of the thoughtless and undiscerning; this was their speedy effects on the tartar which generally covers Teeth that have been neglected—a factitious whiteness was produced, while their deliterious effects upon the Enamel were overlooked, and the Patient had to lament, in a shorter or longer space of time (according to his assiduity in the application) the decay of every Tooth in his Head.

The late Dr. Dimisdale noticed, and early pointed out to Mr. BUTLER, these errors in practice, as followed by the Dentists and Preparers of Tooth Powders, (who, to be sure, procured by these means an extension of business) he accordingly prepared, chiefly from Vegetables, and without the aid of any Mineral substance whatever the

RESTORATIVE TOOTH POWDER,

Here offered to the Use of the Public at large.

In the Circle of Dr. Dimisdale's particular acquaintance, and the Nobility and Gentry (his Patients) the Restorative Tooth Powder was already well known, and its Virtues justly appreciated; but a certain delicacy prevented him from publicly announcing this preparation: Mr. BUTLER has, however, prevailed on his Executors to sell him the Original Recipe for a valuable consideration; and he begs to assure those afflicted with decayed or offensive Teeth and Gums, that they may rely on its efficacy and restorative quality—a Truism, of which any one may be convinced by a fair and candid trial of one Box—in the sale of which Mr. Butler would be very inadequately recompensed in thus pledging his character.

Of the Properties of this Tooth-Powder.

Its deterfive Property is just sufficient to clear away those destructive Particles of Acid which generally adhere to the Gums, and in the Interstices of the Teeth, without injuring the surface of either; healing soreness in the former, and promoting a new enamel of pearly Whiteness, where it has been injured or corroded, on the latter. It has a pleasant and agreeable odour, and is withal so perfectly innocent, that it may be eaten without injury.

These distinguishing Characteristics of its sanative Effects, and Superiority, have procured it the unbounded approbation of the Queen, the Princesses, the Empress of Russia, the Dutcheesses of York, Bedford, Gordon, Devonshire, Leeds, Rutland, and most of the English and Foreign Nobility, many of whom recommend it with admiration, as a necessary appendage to the Toilet; and indeed they do but common justice herein, since it imparts a firmness and beautiful redness to the Gums—to the Breath the most delectable sweetness; and if used constantly as directed, will render the Teeth firm and White, and prevent the Tooth-ach from returning to those who have been liable to its most baneful effects.

Prepared and sold, Wholesale and Retail, by Mr. BUTLER, No. 4, Cheap-side, Corner of Paternoster-row, London, in Boxes at 2s. 9d. duty included.

And, to secure the public from dangerous counterfeits of this valuable Powder, his Majesty's Commissioners of Stamps have been pleased to order the name of R. BUTLER to be engraved on the stamp; and, as a further mark of distinction, have ordered them to be printed in Black, to counterfeit which is felony.

ALSO MAY BE HAD

BUTLER's Improved Silver-wire Tooth-brushes, Price 1s. each,
With the Name of RICHARD BUTLER, affixed on the Handle.
